The Junction

GRETNNA HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

The 1958 edition of THE JUNCTION has been published to record the years activities for present enjoyment and future pleasure. Life at Gretna High School consists of many things too intangible to portray--however, we hope we have captured the highlights that each of you would want to remember with pride. Since this years Seniors were especially interested in Athletics and have participated throughout the years, we have used as our theme The Victory Song.

KRTNA HIGH SCHOOL

Rutledge S. Moon Dedicated To

Rutledge S. Moon, Coach of Gretna High School, whom we esteem for his integrity, admire for his unfailing energy and sincerity, and honor for his service.

May this dedication of the 1958 The Junction express our appreciation for the outstanding service he has rendered to Gretna High School.

Oh, Gretna High

Oh, Gretna High!!!

We Honor You Today...

With Loyal Hearts We Sing

This Song So Gay...

We Love To Think

FROM DARKNESS
TO LIGHT

Of All The Passions True...

Spent In The Walls That

Made The Gold And The Blue...

We Love To Think

Of All Ideals You've Set,

And All You've Been

To Those Who're With You Yet...

And In The Years To Come,

We Will Surpass

By And By

All Other Schools.

All County Champions and Group II County Champions 1958.

Our administrative leaders and faculty have guided us through another successful year. Their counseling has aided us over difficult paths. We are mindful that their interest is centered in our intellectual, spiritual and moral development. Their work will live on through the years ahead.

Within this section we find all classes represented from Seniors to First Grade. We realize the Elementary School makes the future high school. Officers who represent their classes are portrayed. Interesting classes are those that allow for outside activities--here the Biology Class is interested in a nature display.

WAKE UP
SUMMER DAZE IS

E.H.A. WELCOME

ACTIVITIES

Activities enable us to have fun, as well as teach us to assume responsibility and work together harmoniously. Our clubs, band, and publications have given us an opportunity to experience leadership. We hope we have portrayed successfully some of our projects throughout the year.

The Junction

Ann Dove, Editor, Patsy Gay and Ruth Mayhew, Assistant Editors, have had the pleasure of helping make up the annual. They hope you will be pleased with their efforts.

It is fun getting ads for the annual. This is an important assignment. Here Katherine English, Geraldine Bennett, Lois Hamlett, Dixie Hendrix, Wayne Gibson, and Dick Ramsey, Advertising Assistants have returned from a successful day.

Geraldine Bennett and Alvin Perkins, Athletic Editors, discuss the football season with Coach Moon.

Staff

Joan Davis, Peggy Eanes, David Farmer, Dale Irby, Larry Scott, and Kay Crews, all assisted in securing ads. Don't be fooled, they didn't go by bike.

Sandra Moore, Business Manager, finds typing thank you notes and bills for ads quite a job. To Sandra and her helpers go the thanks of the entire school for a financial job well done.

Alvin Perkins, Athletic Editor, Susan Sandefur and Neville Rowland, Assistant Business Managers are discussing the prospects for this year's The Junction. Susan and Neville had the responsibility of securing sufficient advertisement.

Theresa Short and Hilda Paggans, Typists, have worked together to type this year's annual. We all wish to express our appreciations to them for a fine job.

F.H.A. - F.F.A.

The F.H.A. - F.F.A. Banquet is an annual affair held in the spring. The girls invite their mothers and the boys their fathers. The F.H.A. girls, with the assistance of the Home Demonstration club, assume the responsibility of the Banquet. Barbara Dunnnavant and Neville Rowland, presidents of the clubs, presided over the program. Guest speakers included Billy Tuck, reporter and Verlian Bailey, secretary of the State F.F.A.

Here we see Neville Rowland presenting the F.F.A. Sweetheart Jacket to Barbara Dunnnavant. Mrs. Evelyn Mann is the recipient of an armful of roses, the club's flower, from her girls.

Mr. A.B. Culbertson, F.F.A. sponsor, is presenting Neville Rowland with F.F.A. Public Speaking Metal.

Banquet

Stella Vaughan, Nancy Lou Yeatts, and Betty Irby are preparing to Confer the Chapter Homemaker's and Junior Homemaker's Degrees. Those receiving the Junior Homemaker's Degree are Patsy Lovelace, Peggy Eanes, LaVern Mayhew, Eleanor Eanes, Faye Myers, Dottie Keen, Naomi Talbott, Connie Vaughan, Betty Irby, Jeanette Robertson, Joyce Crider, and Myrna Crider. Barbara Dunnivant, Shirley Yeatts, Mildred Colbert and Linda Colbert are receiving the Chapter Homemaker's Degree.

F.H.A. Spring

Each year the F.H.A. girls present a Spring Fashion Show before the Parent - Teacher's Association. The girls model garments they have made in class. Lois Hamlett and Jeanette Robertson were moderators for this years show. The garments were divided into classes: sportswear, house dresses, street wear, and better dresses. Ruth Mayhew, president of the F.H.A., is modeling a better dress.

Fashion Show

Connie Vaughan is tripping along in a dress she made. Betty Irby and her little sister are modeling dresses made by Betty. The girls modeled garments they had made at the County Fair in Danville.

Junior Ring

The Junior Ring dance was held in the spring. It was a gala affair. Much time and energy was devoted to the decoration. The auditorium was decorated in green and gold, the school colors. The ring, made by Neville Rowland and Scotty Tyler, was covered with metallic gold and had a gorgeous green set. Palms were on either side of the ring, forming a lovely background for the Juniors to receive their rings from their dates.

Dance

This gives us a good view of the auditorium. Gail Cocke is presenting Bobby Ferguson his ring.

Here we see the entire group, Juniors and guests.

The Juniors are all smiling, having received their long awaited rings. The Ring Dance was a huge success from their point of view.

Junior-Senior Banquet

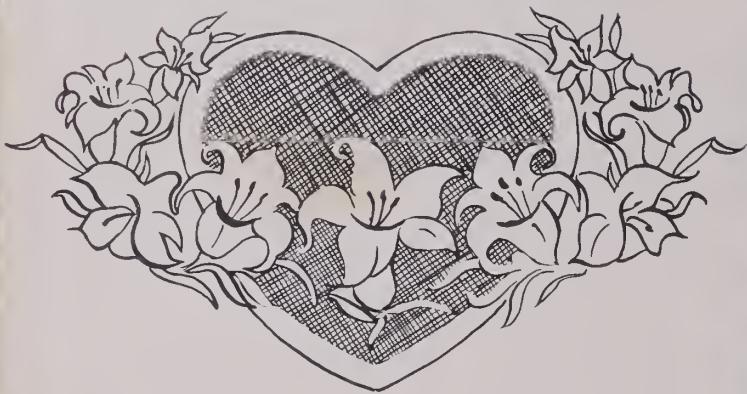

Hearts and Flowers was the theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet. The pink and white decorations, with occasional hearts, represented the Seniors colors. The table decorations were pink and white carnations, their flowers.

Betty Lee Hamlett, Senior president, and Neville Rowland, Junior president, represented their class on the program and at the dance. Lowell Farmer, Dick Ramsey, Neville Rowland, Scotty Tyler, and James East were the Junior officers responsible for the event. Sandra Moore, the only girl who was a class officer, helped a great deal with the plans, however, we think she hid when this picture was made.

Junior-Senior

Neville Rowland gave "A Welcome from our Hearts" to the guest. Betty Lee Hamlett responded with "Flowers to the Juniors". Connie Vaughan and Lowell Farmer had the fun of presenting gifts from the Juniors to the Seniors--these were called "Brick-Bats and Bouquets". "Senior Hearts in the Future" was foretold by Peggy Adkins. Ann Dove gave "Portraits of the Seniors"--of course, as seen thru the eyes of a Junior.

Banquet

The Juniors in the top picture are pleased with the results of the Banquet and Dance. In the second picture the Seniors are expressing their thanks with smiles. The punch table with Doris Ward and Elizabeth Adkins presiding carried out the theme, "Hearts and Flowers."

This gives an idea of the work involved preparing for the Junior-Senior Banquet, corsages were made, auditorium decorated, tables set, and glassware cleaned. The results were well worth the effort.

Ann Dove was crowned queen during half-time of the Gretna-Chatham game. Here she has just been crowned and is quite happy.

Homecoming Parade

The Homecoming parade featuring fourteen floats was led by the Gretna Band and climaxed by the Queen's Float, sponsored by the Girl's Monogram Club. As in the past, this float was not judged. Everyone was of the opinion it was the most beautiful anyway.

The Majorettes leading the Band, paraded from school, down Main Street. The fourteen floats following made a lovely picture. Here we see them just entering Main Street.

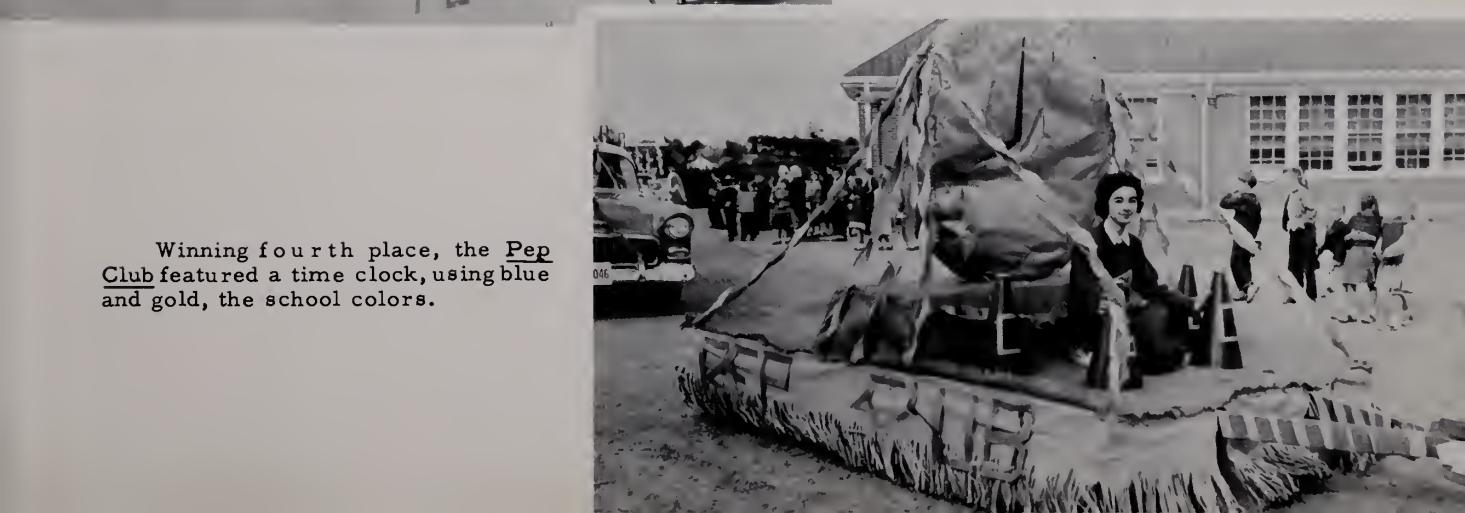

Winning Floats

The first prize was won by The Student Council Association. They featured the Liberty Bell and free government. The colors were green and white.

The Future Homemakers of America featuring the home as the heart of the nation in their colors of red and white, won third place.

Winning fourth place, the Pep Club featured a time clock, using blue and gold, the school colors.

Dear Joyce,

Just a few lines to let you know or help you remember the good old times we have had together. Sharing our secrets! Remember the times we would walk down this old country road talking about "these girls and boys!" What about "Blondie" telling about our fellows! Remember the nights we stayed with each other. Sleeping on the floor! It has been lots of fun being in school and Southern Dairies riding the bus with you.

I want to wish a very cute and real sweet girl the very best of luck. Stay as you are now and you will have many friends. Just don't forget me!
Good luck!

Stay sweet!
A friend,
Joyce
